

Exponential horn, a part of the broadcasting system. There are in addition nine loudspeakers. This horn can be heard a half a mile and reaches all the reservation in rear. The broadcasting system gets the person wanted in one minute on the average, through loudspeaker set up at different points.

Some of F.E.R.A. working crew. An average of 40 men were employed for several months. To save time and expense for these men whose wages are low the E & R department hauled them to and from work daily.

The Kitchen.
The kitchen is obsolete and disreputable and a new kitchen, refrigeration plant
and mess hall is under way to cost $10,000.00.
This being put up by F.E.R.A.
The estimated worth is $25,000.00
when finished.

Hospital
kitchen being demolished.
(Left.)

Chimney falling.
(Right.)

Cement apron on newly filled land just completed at steam plant. (Done by enlisted labor.)

A portion of new concrete road at rear, running to steam plant recently completed with enlisted labor.

The area (4 acres) west of Kennedy Avenue recently taken over for addition to ball field, for volley ball, new recreation and dance hall, new parking area, maneuvers etc. This is the site selected for a new hospital and was formerly under lease. It adjoins Tripler General Hospital. New temporary projects do not enroach on building area for new hospital.

New concrete and steel paint and oil house under construction. This building is being erected by enlisted labor who do all concrete work, welding etc. This building will greatly lessen the fire hazard.

Concrete parking space in rear of hospital, accommodating 20 cars. Built by enlisted labor.

Motor Transportation Section.

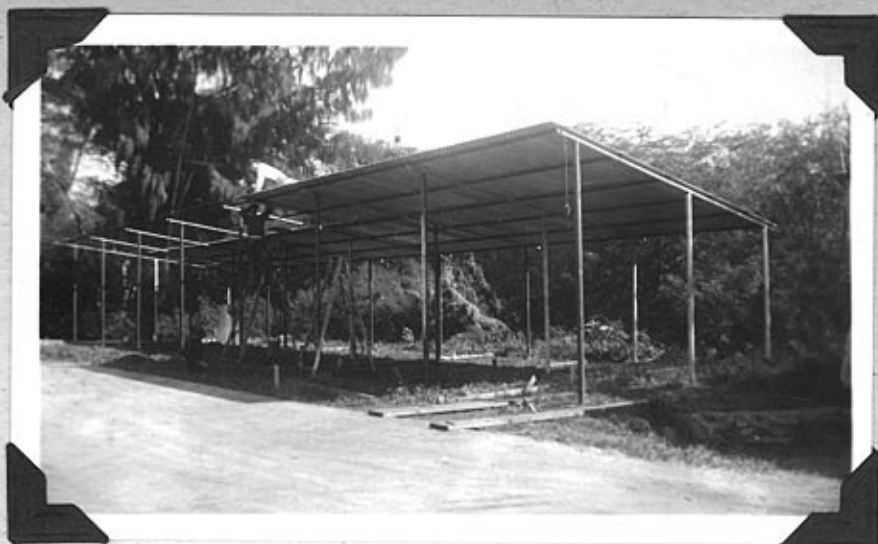

The site of the new unfinished garage with framework erected shown in foreground. This building with concrete floor will be erected by enlisted labor. One 5 ton truck, one $1\frac{1}{2}$ ton truck, one 1 ton truck, two ambulances, one G.M.C. truck (converted), one 5 passenger Studebaker.

Parking spaces with concrete runways for 13 cars built on Kennedy Avenue by utilizing spaces between trees. (Constructed with F.E.R.A. labor.)

Entrance to Kennedy Avenue from North King Street, (Named after Brigadier General James M. Kennedy, a former Commanding Officer of Tripler General Hospital.

All metal and concrete shelter garage for 8 cars. All metal work including welding done by enlisted labor. The concrete floor remains to be poured. Contractors estimate for this was $2,500.00, actual cost about $600.00.

Oil tanks used in furnishing steam for the hospital. The steam plant supplies the entire area, including the barracks 500 yards distant.

Cement mixer. Purchased to save money on new buildings.

A mountain of sand. Forty-five truck loads of sand had to be hauled from Lanikai 35 miles distant for cement used on the new buildings.